Beyond the Big Pumpkins...Kickball Tournament Comes to Elk Grove Harvest Festival

Elk Grove, Calif. – Portly produce and a favorite childhood pastime will converge during the 12th Annual Elk Grove Harvest Festival, October 7-8 at Elk Grove Regional Park (9950 Elk Grove-Florin Rd.). The Elk Grove Community Services District has organized a Harvest Festival Kickball Tournament among Saturday's many festival activities. Teams are now forming. Deadline to enter is September 22.

Adult co-ed teams will vie for bragging rights and special awards for first and second place. Only 12 teams will be registered to play. Each team will play at least three games. Cost to participate is $125 per team.

Join the fun of Elk Grove's largest family festival. Besides the kickball tournament, the festival will feature a giant pumpkin weigh-off, scarecrow contest, a grape and gourmet galley, crafts, enchanted garden, fitness walk to benefit the ALS Association, a kid zone, pumpkin patch and much, much more. Award winning children's performer, Francie Dillon will entertain guests along with musical headliners Code Blue (Saturday) and On Air (Sunday).

The Elk Grove Harvest Festival is presented by the Elk Grove Auto Mall, News 10, and The Sacramento Bee. Admission is FREE. Parking inside Elk Grove Regional Park is $5. Food booths and carnival attractions benefit local youth and service organizations.

Call (916) 405-5300 or visit www.egcsd.ca.gov for contest entry forms and Festival details.
